

RAGING POLICY

As per the direction of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, the institute will strictly follow the "UGC Regulation on Curbing the Menace in Higher Educational Institutions 2009".

In accordance with these regulations, the admitted student as well as the parents concerned must have to submit two individual affidavits per format.

STATUTORY WARNING:

- Ragging of any student is a criminal offence and stringent measures have to be taken for curbing the menace of ragging in educational institutions. RIST administration is very conscious of its responsibilities in this regard and students and parents need not harbour undue apprehensions and should report any incident immediately to the college authorities and stringent punishment will be meted out to the culprit(s).
- "Causing, inducing, compelling or forcing a student, whether by way of practical joke or otherwise, to do any act which detracts from human dignity or violates his/her person or exposes him/her to ridicule from doing any lawful act. By intimidating, wrongfully restraining, wrongfully confining, or injuring him or by using criminal force on him/her or by holding out to him/her any threat of intimidation, wrongful confinement, injury or the use of criminal force."
- "Ragging in all its forms is totally banned in this institution including in its departments, constituent units, all its premises (academic, residential, sports, canteen/cafeteria and the like) whether located within the campus or outside and in all means of transportation of students whether public or private."
- The Statutory Warning displayed below is also displayed in the college under instructions from the University Grant Commission (UGC).
- "IF any incident of ragging comes to the notice of the authority, the concerned student student shall be given liberty to explain and if his / her explanation is not found satisfactory, the authority would expel him from the institution."
